

World Forestry Center: Seeking Grant Prospecting & Writing Consultant

World Forestry Center (WFC) is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to engaging diverse audiences with the world's forests. For more than 50 years, WFC has worked to cultivate and inspire champions of sustainable forestry—not just by focusing on forests, but by exploring how people think, act, and relate to them.

Position Overview:

World Forestry Center seeks a seasoned grant prospecting and writing consultant to support our Advancement Team in identifying and securing mission-aligned funding opportunities. This contract role will play a key part in helping WFC meet its fundraising goals for Fiscal Year 2026. Priority areas in foundation, state, and federal grant exploration include (but are not limited to):

- Arts, Heritage, and Cultural Institutions
- Environmental and Forest Science
- Education and Public Engagement
- Public Health

Scope of Work:

- Conducting prospect research to identify relevant grant opportunities
- Drafting and submitting compelling grant applications and proposals
- Advising on funding strategy alignment

Proposal Information:

We invite interested consultants to submit a proposal with the following information:

- Resume or CV
- Hourly or project-based rates and terms
- Two to three writing samples (preferably grant proposals or related materials)
- Statement of interest outlining relevant experience, including a sample outline of your process (e.g., project timelines, communication protocols, and deliverables)

Please send your proposal information to advancement@worldforestry.org on or before Friday, August 29, 2025.